ATTORNEY GENERAL'S SUMMARY OF RESULTS OF CHARITABLE SOLICITATION BY COMMERCIAL FUNDRAISERS

The term "commercial fundraiser" refers generally to a person or corporation that is a for-profit business who contracts with charities, for compensation, to raise money in their behalf. The commercial fundraiser usually makes a profit by charging charities a flat fee or a percentage of the contributions collected on behalf of the charities. However, it is important to note that most of the 81,000 charities registered with the Attorney General in California do not use commercial fundraisers to raise funds.

Historically, on average, less than one-half of the dollars collected by commercial fundraisers in California have actually gone to charities, according to reports filed with the Attorney General. This Summary reflects the results of solicitations by commercial fundraisers in 1999, as stated in reports they are required to file with the Attorney General.

It is important to note that the information in this summary is taken unedited from reports filed by the charities and fundraisers themselves. To be accepted by the Attorney General, the reports must be signed by the commercial fundraisers and officers of the charities for whom the solicitations were made. The actual reports should be consulted for more complete information provided by the filers. You may review the reports, as well as a wealth of information about charities and fundraising, on the Attorney General's internet web site:

<http://caag.state.ca.us/charities/>

The Attorney General also publishes a Guide to Charitable Solicitation. You may obtain a Guide at the Attorney General's internet web site, or write to the Attorney General's Public Inquiry Unit, P.O. Box 944255, Sacramento, California 94244.

March 2001

CHARITABLE SOLICITATION BY COMMERCIAL FUNDRAISERS
$193 MILLION COLLECTED IN 1999

In 1999, commercial fundraisers soliciting the public on behalf of charitable organizations collected a total of just over $193.3 million in charitable contributions within this state. Only $93.1 million (48.2%) of that total was actually received by the charitable organizations on whose behalf the solicitations were made. Simply put, substantially less than one-half of every dollar donated by Californians to charities which used these commercial fundraisers went to charity. Most of the money went to solicitation expenses and to fundraiser profits.

In response to charity comments and to help provide a better snapshot of activities by commercial fund-raisers, this report covers fund-raising campaigns that were concluded in calendar year 1999. Previous reports included on-going fundraising campaigns, which could affect expenditures to donations turned over to charity ratios. This report also features two new tables that compile data from annual disclosure reports that were returned to the commercial fundraiser as incomplete. In most cases, the reports were rejected because they were not signed by the commercial fundraiser and two officers of the charity for whom the solicitations were made.

The following chart shows the total number of commercial fundraising campaigns that yielded more than 50% to charity (192), between 31% and 50% to charity (52), between 21% and 30% to charity (44), between 16% and 20% to charity (48), and 15% and less to charity (130).

1999 Reports: Percentage to Charity

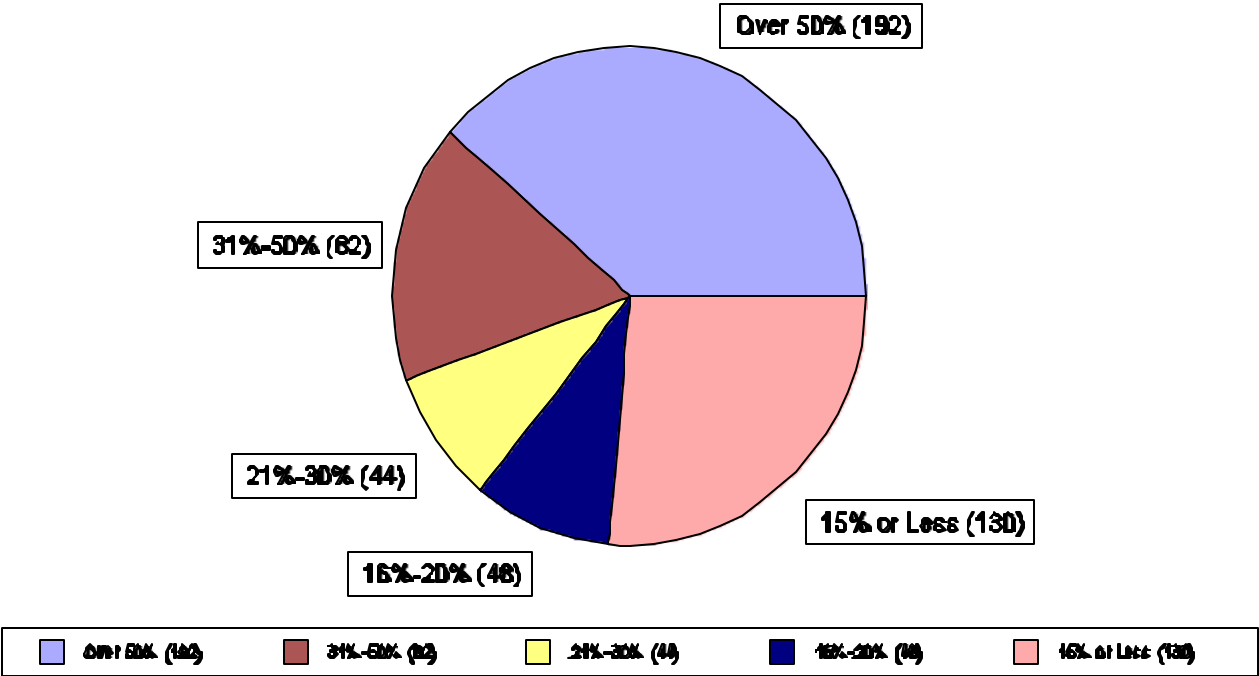

TABLE 1

This table lists in descending order each charitable organization which sponsored a commercial fundraising campaign where 15% or less of the funds raised actually went to charity.

TABLE NO. 5

This table lists commercial fundraisers that registered in 1999 and submitted financial reports that were not accepted for filing.

Financial reports must be signed by the commercial fundraiser and also by two officers of the organization. In most cases the financial reports were not accepted because they have not been signed by the officers of the charities.

Reports identified as unacceptable that were resubmitted and accepted after February 1, 2001, will be included in the next published CFR report.
