

15151(a) and (b), 15375(a), and 19301 to effect technical changes only and that are not inconsistent with the purposes of this Act.

(c) Nothing in this Act is intended to and shall not be construed to alter or to limit the existing power of the Legislature to alter existing law governing the means by which political parties either select delegates to national political party conventions at which a party nominee for President is chosen, or elect or select members of political party state and county central committees, or both.

SECTION 102. Conflicting Ballot Measures

(a) In the event that this measure and another measure or measures relating to direct primary elections, special primary elections or general elections in this state shall appear on the same statewide election ballot, the provisions of the other measures that would affect in whole or in part the field of such primary elections or general elections, or both, shall be deemed to be in conflict with this measure. In the event that this measure shall receive a greater number of affirmative votes, the provisions of this measure shall prevail in their entirety and the provisions of the other measure or measures shall be null and void in their entirety. In the event that the other measure or measures shall receive a greater number of affirmative votes, the provisions of this measure shall take effect to the extent permitted by law.

(b) If this measure is approved by voters but superseded by any other conflicting ballot measure approved by the voters at the same election, and the conflicting ballot measure is later held invalid, this measure shall be self-executing and given full force of law.

SECTION 103. Severability

If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act that can be given effect in the absence of the invalid provision or application. To this end, the provisions of this act are severable.
