SUSPECT: Unknown

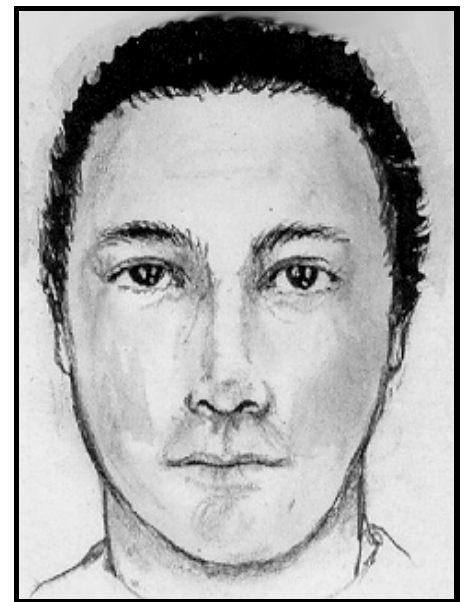

PHYSICAL: White male; 25-30 years old; 5'11"; 160 lbs; black wavy hair-combed back with gel; light complexion; thin build

CLOTHING: Blue short sleeve button front shirt or blue t-shirt; brown leather hiking boots

WEAPON: None

VEHICLE: White 2 door, possibly a hatchback with white sheepskin seat covers on front seats.

OUTSTANDING FEATURES: Suspect is described as having “white skin”

INFORMATION: The Santa Monica Police Department is requesting assistance in identifying a suspect in connection with an indecent exposure case and a child annoyance case that occurred in the downtown Santa Monica area.

MODUS OPERANDI SUMMARY: Two cases, one involving an indecent exposure and the other a child annoyance occurred in Santa Monica by an unknown suspect.

- 1. Indecent Exposure: On Tuesday, March 27, 2001, the suspect followed the victim into a restroom. While standing directly in front of the victim's stall, he began to masturbate.
- 2. Child Annoyance: On Sunday, April 8, 2001, the suspect befriended the victim, offered him a ride home and engaged the victim in a conversation about having sex. When they arrived at the victim's home the suspect asked the victim if his parents were home. After the victim responded “yes”, the suspect told him, “Don't tell them about our conversation - you know how parents can be.” The suspect stated “It was really nice meeting you” and drove away. The victim went inside his apartment and notified his parents.
