WARNING: Every person acting on behalf of a candidate is guilty of a misdemeanor who deliberately fails to file at the proper time and in the proper place any declaration of candidacy in his or her possession which is entitled to be filed under the provisions of the Elections Code Section 18202.

(b) A candidate for a judicial office may not be required to state his or her residential address on the declaration of candidacy. However, in cases where the candidate does not state his or her residential address on the declaration of candidacy, the elections official shall verify whether his or her address is within the appropriate political subdivision and add the notation "verified" where appropriate.

(c) For purposes of subsection (a)2(a), the use by a candidate of his or her political party registration status on the ballot is subject to the candidate's registration status complying with the time limitations set forth in Section 8001(a) and, for candidates for voter-nominated offices, to the political party's consent as specified in Section 7031.

(d) For purposes of subsection (a)2(b), the use by a candidate of his or her registration status as "no party" on the ballot is subject to the candidate's registration status complying with the time limitations set forth in Section 8001(c).

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person who intends to qualify as a candidate for a voter-nominated office, and who fails to comply with the requirements of Section 8001(a) for a reason other than the person's voluntary action, has the right to be listed as a candidate for that office on the ballot and shall have his or her voter registration status printed on the ballot as "No Party," provided that the person meets all other qualification requirements for candidacy for that office.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a candidate who has met all qualification requirements for candidacy for a voter-nominated office, but who is found after such qualification not to be entitled to the application of Section 13105(a)(2) for a reason other than a voluntary action by the candidate, has the right to be listed as a candidate for that office on the ballot and shall have his or her voter registration status printed on the ballot as "No Party." Section 13105(d) shall not be applicable under this subsection.
