

Fourth Annual Attorney General's Victims' Assistance Conference April 21, 2004

In conjunction with National Crime Victims' Rights Week, the California Attorney General's Office of Victims' Services will host the Fourth Annual Victims' Assistance Conference in Sacramento, California. The location will be at the Legislative Office Building at 1020 N Street, Hearing Room 100. There is no cost to attend.

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 8:45 - 9:00 | Welcome and Introductions |
| 9:00 - 9:30 | Jonathan Raven, Director
Attorney General's Office of Victims' Services |
| | Gary Lieberstein, District Attorney
Napa County |
| | Bill Lockyer, Attorney General |
| 9:30 - 11:30 | Jeanne Adams, National Expert on Ritual Abuse |
| 11:30 - 12:45 | Lunch on your own |
| 12:45 - 1:45 | Dan Levey, Advisor on Crime Victim's Rights and Issues to
Arizona Governor Janet Napolitano |
| 2:00 - 4:00 | Lieutenant Christine Murray
Will be discussing the Samantha Runnion case |
| 4:00 | Reception (No Host) - Hyatt Regency Hotel |

Please RSVP via e-mail to: victimservices@doj.ca.gov or call toll-free at 1-877-433-9069